FOR MEN WHO HAVE NEARLY EVERYTHING

If you are stumped about what kind of jewelry to give to the man in your life, ID bracelets have been very popular for quite some time. These handsome, masculine bracelets are available in platinum, gold, silver, and stainless steel, and they sometimes incorporate tasteful bands of black rubber or leather. Their most prominent feature is the name plate, which can be engraved with first names or nicknames on the front. On the back, there is room for less-visible dates and affectionate thoughts to be inscribed. Attached to each side of the nameplate and encircling the wrist are links in any number of styles and sizes, which may be matched with a necklace or stand alone as declarative fashion statements.

Whenever you have decisions to make about jewelry, whether about choosing a gift for your someone special or add to your own jewelry collection, turn to your trusted friend in the jewelry industry. Our instinct for what our customers want, our knowledge of what's new and trendy, our commitment to complete customer service, and our eye for quality make us perfectly suited to bring you together with the jewelry that will make you smile with pleasure. See our outstanding selection of beautiful offerings at 1402 Hancock Street, Quincy Center. PH: 617-773-3636.
